

Hellertown Historical Society - Special Event

“Colonial Yuletide Tea”

Sunday, December 7, 1-3PM

Enjoy a bounteous luncheon and re-creation of a colonial era tea, with discussions on the social and cultural aspects of tea and teas in the mid to late 1700's. Re-enactors will be on hand to “talk tea” and interpret colonial social customs. Guest performer Melanie Zanakis will provide colonial harpsichord and violin music.

Fee to attend includes all food, beverages, and entertainment -
$35pp HHS members, $45pp non-members.

Seating limited to 42 guests.

Info and tickets info@hhstours.org or call 610-838-1770

The event is held in the Historical Society's Tavern venue located in the lower level of the historic Heller-Wagner Grist Mill building at 170 West Walnut Street, Hellertown PA 18055. Free off-street parking is available adjacent to the west side of the building and across Walnut Street near the Saucon Rail Trail access.